TOROEVOLUTION® SERIES CONTROLLER

THE STANDARD IN IRRIGATION CONTROL

The EVOLUTION controller has changed the way we think about irrigation control. It combines a modern and intuitive design with wide-ranging functionality, making it perfect for everyday residential use, yet able to meet the needs of larger, more complex landscapes.

POWERFUL FEATURES

The EVOLUTION controller comes standard with features ready to meet the wide-ranging needs of your clients

- ✓ Modular expansion from 4 to 16 zones
- ✓ Three independent watering schedules, and a stand-alone Auxiliary schedule
- ✓ Capable of powering up to four standard solenoids, and running simultaneous schedules
- ✓ Master Valve and Pump controls

UNIQUE CAPABILITY

The EVOLUTION controller offers features not seen in comparably priced competitive timers

- ✓ Wirelessly communicates with a host of water-saving accessories
- ✓ Load and Save schedules with a USB drive
- ✓ Built-in capability to measure solenoid power draw by zone
- ✓ Customizable Grow-In feature to better manage new plantings

CONTROL FROM ANYWHERE

The EVOLUTION controller can be managed from anywhere through Toro's proprietary SMRT Logic® gateway and SMRTscape™ platform

- ✓ Manage your client's new or existing EVOLUTION through the internet using the Toro SMRTscape™ mobile app or website
- ✓ Uses a secure 900MHz radio frequency to communicate back to the client's internet router through the SMRT Logic gateway
- ✓ Use SMRT Logic to wirelessly control other landscape features, such as outdoor lighting, fountains, and outdoor sound systems

Always Up to Date

The EVOLUTION controller is designed to allow you to remain flexible and keep up with your clients' changing needs. As its name depicts, the EVOLUTION controller can be easily updated with new features and capabilities. Simply download free updates from www.toro.com/evolution and update the controller in the field through the USB drive.

Get the Job Done Faster

With its unique set of blue shortcut buttons, the time needed to program the EVOLUTION, make schedule adjustments, or review schedules is greatly reduced. The backlit LCD screen displays menus and options in the language of your choice – English, Spanish, French, among others – with no difficult-to-understand symbols or icons.

5 Year Warranty – Best in Class

Toro's confidence in the EVOLUTION is evident through our standing behind this product with a 5-year product warranty.
